10. FACTS, EVALUATION AND COMMENT: (Use additional plain sheet if necessary)

A. During the reporting period, the Bund Deutscher Jugend distributed the following propaganda items (the majority of which were issued in connection with BDJ's "Committee for the unmasking of the Third World Youth Festival"): 40,000 copies of the "Information Service;" 37,000 leaflets; 1,500 posters; 35,000 pamphlets; 750 copies of their confidential information service; 500 booklets and 200,000 stickers. This constitutes a total of 1,858,000 leaflets; 275,000 copies of "Information Service;" 35,000 pamphlets; 1,500 copies of the confidential information service; 500 booklets; 467,000 stickers; 30,870 posters; 35,000 circulars and circular letters; 30,000 Christmas cards and 7,500 balloons distributed since August 1950. Membership during the period has increased from 7,657 to 7,893.

On 1 August 1951 the East German radio announced that the Ministry for State Security had "discovered and completely liquidated" the "Free Parliament," the East German branch of the BDJ.

Present plans for the Apparat include a supply reserve in the Kempten mountains, demolition teams of the Emperor Wilhelm canal, supply and evacuation routes into Switzerland and Austria, and rubber boat teams for the Schleswig-Holstein coast. As of 30 June 1951 the Apparat strength was 2,800 West Germans and 41 East Germans.

B. This Soviet Zone report of liquidation proved to be almost completely false. Six members of the Halle branch of the BDJ had been arrested (July report) and as a propaganda ruse, timed with the opening of the Third World Youth Festival, the East German Ministry for State Security announced that they had arrested not just six, but the entire organization.
